

CO-OPS 101 FOR INTERNS

Developing Co-op Leaders. Advancing Cooperative Success.

JULY 10-11, 2018 TOPEKA, KS

The Co-ops 101 Seminar is designed for students attending college and interning at a KCC member cooperative during the summer of 2018. Interns must have completed at least one year of post-secondary education or military service prior to attending.

OUR PRESENTERS

- Mandy Roe, KCC Director of Member Services
- Dr. Brian Briggeman, K-State Professor & Director, Arthur Capper Cooperative Center
- Mitch Williams, President/CEO, KFSA

Dr. Brian Briggeman will provide the basics that your interns need to know about the cooperative business model. He will answer questions such as:

- What principles guide cooperatives?
- How important are cooperatives to agriculture?
- What benefits do cooperatives provide?

REGISTRATION

Registration fee is $50 per intern. Funds collected will be used to off-set expenses and will also be used to invest in future intern programming. Please complete the enclosed registration form and return by June 20, 2018.

LOCATION & LODGING

Seminar and lodging will be held at the Hyatt Place in Topeka, KS. Lodging at the group rate will only be available for the night of July 10, 2018. The co-op is responsible for making room reservations. A block of rooms has been reserved under the 'Kansas Cooperative Council' until June 26. Breakfast for the morning of July 11 is included with the hotel stay.
